

CHILD'S INTERNET USAGE CONTRACT

1. I will talk with my parent(s) about rules and guidelines for the computer and internet. I will then seek to honor God and my parents by my sincere obedience to their rules and guidelines.
2. I will make sure my parent(s) knows about the services and web sites I desire to use and seek their approval before using them. If my parents do not know how to use them, I will show them how.
3. I will never give out personal information such as my name, address, telephone number, my picture, parents' work address or telephone number, or the name and location of my school without my parents' permission.
4. I will not give out my internet password to anyone other than my parents (not even my best friends).
5. If someone my parents and I have never met in person contacts me online and requests to meet with me, I will immediately notify my parents without responding to the online person.
6. I will not respond to any messages that are mean or in any way make me feel uncomfortable. Instead, I will show my parents so they can contact the internet service provider.

PARENT'S INTERNET PLEDGE

1. I will set rules and guidelines for computer use by my child/children that are clear, definable, and enforceable. I will discuss these with my child/children and post them near the computer as a reminder. I will remember to monitor their compliance with these rules and guidelines.
2. I will get to know the services and web sites that I have approved for my child/children to use. If I don't know how to use them, I will get my child/children to show me how.
3. I will encourage my child/children to tell me about problems he or she is having on the internet. When they do, I promise to act in such a way as to please God and help my child/children to please God. We will work together to try and solve the problem and prevent it from happening again.
4. I promise not to use the computer or the internet as an electronic babysitter.
5. I will help my child/children develop disciplines for using the computer and internet that bring glory and honor to God. I will in turn model these disciplines in my own life.

I agree to the above:
