

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF... DEMONS?”

Mark 5:1–20

By Paul Lamey

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (vv. 1–5)

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (vv. 1–5)
2. Through Christ, the destructive power of sin is canceled (vv. 6–10)

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (vv. 1–5)
2. Through Christ, the destructive power of sin is canceled (vv. 6–10)
3. Through Christ, God changes our desires (vv. 11–18)

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (w. 1–5)
2. Through Christ, the destructive power of sin is canceled (w. 6–10)
3. Through Christ, God changes our desires (w. 11–18)
 - A. A renewed mind (w. 11–15)

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (vv. 1–5)
2. Through Christ, the destructive power of sin is canceled (vv. 6–10)
3. Through Christ, God changes our desires (vv. 11–18)
 - A. A renewed mind (vv. 11–15)
 - B. A renewed direction (vv. 16–18)

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF...DEMONS?” (MARK 5:1–20)

1. Through Christ, God draws near to the defiled (vv. 1–5)
2. Through Christ, the destructive power of sin is canceled (vv. 6–10)
3. Through Christ, God changes our desires (vv. 11–18)
 - A. A renewed mind (vv. 11–15)
 - B. A renewed direction (vv. 16–18)
4. Through Christ, we proclaim what we once denied (vv. 19–20)