

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING?

Romans 1:8–15

By Paul Lamey

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

1. The Gospel is being proclaimed (vv. 8–10)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

1. The Gospel is being proclaimed (vv. 8–10)
2. The Church is being established (vv. 11–12)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

1. The Gospel is being proclaimed (vv. 8–10)
2. The Church is being established (vv. 11–12)
3. The Mission is being extended (vv. 13–15)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

Thanksgiving According to Paul
(in Romans):

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

Thanksgiving According to Paul
(in Romans):

- 1) It protects us from unbelief (Rom 1:21)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

Thanksgiving According to Paul (in Romans):

- 1) It protects us from unbelief (Rom 1:21)
- 2) It points us to Christ (Rom 7:25)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

Thanksgiving According to Paul (in Romans):

- 1) It protects us from unbelief (Rom 1:21)
- 2) It points us to Christ (Rom 7:25)
- 3) It reconciles the church (Rom 14:6)

WILL THERE BE THANKSGIVING? (ROMANS 1:8–15)

Thanksgiving According to Paul (in Romans):

- 1) It protects us from unbelief (Rom 1:21)
- 2) It points us to Christ (Rom 7:25)
- 3) It reconciles the church (Rom 14:6)
- 4) It sacrifices comfort for others (Rom 16:3–4)