

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (PART 2)

Romans 1:16–17

By Paul Lamey

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

Review

1. Why is the Good News Good? (vs. 16)

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

1. Why is the Good News Good? (vs. 16)

2. What Does the Gospel Do? (vs. 17)

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

1. Why is the Good News Good? (vs. 16)

2. What Does the Gospel Do? (vs. 17)

A. We are brought-in by faith (17a)

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

1. Why is the Good News Good? (vs. 16)

2. What Does the Gospel Do? (vs. 17)

A. We are brought-in by faith (17a)

B. We live by faith (17b)

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

Behold, as for the proud one, his soul is not right within him; but the righteous will live by his faith.

-- Habakkuk 2:4

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

- In Galatians 3:11—how you begin is how you finish.

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

- In Galatians 3:11—how you begin is how you finish.
- In Hebrews 10:38—the faithful will confidently persevere toward their eternal reward.

THE ORIGINAL RECIPE (ROMANS 1:16–17)

- In Galatians 3:11—how you begin is how you finish.
- In Hebrews 10:38—the faithful will confidently persevere toward their eternal reward.
- In Romans 1:17—the gospel saves and repositions those who come in faith.