

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS

Romans 2:12–16

By Paul Lamey

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(vv. 12–13)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(vv. 12–13)

A. My status as a sinner is not changed
by the law (vs. 12)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(vv. 12–13)

A. My status as a sinner is not changed
by the law (vs. 12)

B. My obedience as a believer will be vindicated (vs. 13)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(v. 12–13)
2. How Does God Evaluate Those Who
Have No Law? (v. 14–16)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(vv. 12–13)
2. How Does God Evaluate Those Who
Have No Law? (vv. 14–16)
  - A. All still have the work of the law—
instinct (vs. 14)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(vv. 12–13)
2. How Does God Evaluate Those Who Have No Law? (vv. 14–16)
  - A. All still have the work of the law—
instinct (vs. 14)
  - B. All still have the witness of the law—
conscience (vs. 15)

THE PROBLEM OF IN-LAWS AND OUT-LAWS (ROMANS 2:12–16)

1. How Does God Evaluate My Works?
(v. 12–13)
2. How Does God Evaluate Those Who Have No Law? (v. 14–16)
  - A. All still have the work of the law—
instinct (vs. 14)
  - B. All still have the witness of the law—
conscience (vs. 15)
  - C. All still need the fulfillment of the law—Christ (vs. 16)